1. Recruitment, Selection & Appointment

1.1 Recruitment

Recruitment at the Foundation is based on merit, relevant skills, knowledge, competencies, and experience, to ensure that the most appropriate candidate is hired for each role. The Foundation is an equal-opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, religion, gender, marital status, or disability. Job vacancies are publicly advertised on the MAF website and other recognised job portals.

1.2 Selection & Hiring Process

Applicants' resumes are routed to the Manager, Human Resources & Administration, who consolidates them and forwards them to the Chief Executive Officer for shortlisting according to the aptitude requirements outlined in the job posting. The selection process includes the following:

- a) All relevant information and supporting documents (resume, educational qualifications, professional certifications, employment history, and references) are provided for an initial review to confirm suitability for the role.
- b) Unless the Board and the Chief Executive Officer consider otherwise, applicants who do not meet the stated requirements will not be considered for interview.
- c) Shortlisted candidates undergo at least one panel interview. Reference checks are conducted for all candidates prior to an offer being made.

Composition of the Interview Panel

The interview panel shall comprise the following members, by role:

Role being filled	Interview Panel Members
Manager and above	1. Chief Executive Officer 2. Board Member overseeing the relevant department / Honorary Secretary / President 3. Singapore Sports Institute (SSI) Representative (where necessary)
Coach	1. Chief Executive Officer 2. Board Member 3. Representative from the High Performance Standing Committee 4. SSI Representative
Executive to Senior Executive	1. Chief Executive Officer 2. Board Member 3. Manager, Human Resources & Administration
Part-Time / Temporary Staff	1. Manager, Human Resources & Administration / Chief Executive Officer

Panel members must declare any conflict of interest before participating in an interview. Where a panel member is related to or has a close personal relationship with a candidate, that member shall recuse themselves.

1.3 Appointment

The selected candidate is given a copy of the Letter of Appointment indicating the terms of employment, signed by the Chief Executive Officer (or the Honorary Secretary) and the candidate on or before the commencement of employment.

1.4 Probation

All new employees serve a probationary period of three (3) months, which may be extended by up to a further three (3) months at the discretion of the Foundation. During probation, either party may terminate the employment by giving one (1) week's notice in writing or payment of one week's salary in lieu of notice. Confirmation of employment is subject to a satisfactory probation review conducted by the employee's immediate supervisor.

2. Terms & Conditions of Service

2.1 Appointment Letter

The Letter of Appointment will include the following particulars:

- Full name of the Employer and the Employee
- Job title, main duties, and responsibilities
- Start date of employment
- Duration of employment (if the employee is on a fixed-term contract)
- Daily working hours, number of working days per week, and rest day
- Salary period, basic salary, fixed allowances, and fixed deductions
- Overtime compensation arrangements (including Off-in-Lieu)
- Bonuses and incentives
- Type and quantum of leave
- Medical and dental benefits (including insurance coverage)
- Probation period
- Notice period
- Place of work

2.2 Working Hours

The standard work week is five (5) days, Monday to Friday, from 9.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m., inclusive of a one-hour lunch break (a total of 40 working hours per week). Owing to the nature of the Foundation's activities, employees may be required to work on weekends and public holidays during competitions, events, and training camps; such work is compensated in accordance with the Off-in-Lieu provisions in Section 3.0.4.

2.3 Code of Conduct

The employee shall comply fully with all rules and regulations that are in force, or may be made from time to time, in the Foundation's policies and procedures, circulars, and any special regulations applicable to their appointment or department, as well as all lawful directions of the Board. Employees are expected to conduct themselves appropriately—whether in the office, at events, or in any other related activity—so as to maintain respect for themselves and the good standing of the Foundation.

2.4 Confidentiality

- a) The employee is responsible for safeguarding the Foundation's assets, including all confidential information, and for preventing its disclosure to unauthorised individuals.
- b) The employee must treat all official documents and information that come into their possession or knowledge in the course of work as confidential.
- c) Such documents and information must be used strictly in the course of the employee's work for the Foundation.
- d) The employee must not, under any circumstance, copy, extract, or translate confidential information for unofficial use, nor allow others to do so, nor disclose, publish, or communicate it to the press or to any individual in any form whatsoever, except in the course of official duties or with the written permission of the Foundation. This obligation survives the termination of employment.

2.5 Conflict of Interest

- a) The employee is to avoid relationships or situations that may cause, or may be perceived as causing, a conflict between their own interests and those of the Foundation.
- b) The employee shall declare any vested interests at the commencement of employment by completing the Conflict-of-Interest Declaration Form. This is a continuing obligation: the employee must keep the Foundation informed of any actual or potential conflict of interest throughout the duration of their employment.

2.6 Annual Leave

Employees may apply for paid annual leave according to their grade, as follows:

Grade	Entitlement (working days / calendar year)	Maximum Cap
Chief Executive Officer	20	24
Manager	18	22
Coach	16	20
Senior Executive	16	20
Executive and below	14	18

- a) Annual leave is earned on a pro-rata basis during the first year of service and during the year of resignation.
- b) A maximum of seven (7) days of unconsumed annual leave earned in a calendar year may be carried forward to the following year. Carried-forward leave must be consumed by the end of that following year, failing which it will be forfeited.
- c) All leave applications require the approval of the immediate supervisor and, for Managers and above, the Chief Executive Officer.
- d) Staff must notify their immediate supervisor and/or team members at least one (1) week in advance, except in cases of emergency.
- e) Leave applications are to be submitted online in advance via the Foundation's leave management system.
- f) Staff employed under a previous policy (before 2024) will continue to enjoy their existing benefits where these are more favourable.

2.7 Marriage Leave

An employee is entitled to three (3) working days of paid marriage leave for their first marriage only, and two (2) working days for the marriage of their own child. Staff must submit a copy of the relevant marriage certificate to HR for approval. Marriage leave must be consumed within three (3) months of the date of marriage.

2.8 Maternity Leave

A female employee qualifies for sixteen (16) continuous weeks of paid maternity leave (inclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays) if her child is a Singapore citizen, or twelve (12) weeks if the child is not, provided that:

- a) she is, or has been, legally married to the child's father;
- b) she has served the Foundation for a continuous period of at least three (3) months immediately before the birth of her child; and

- c) she has given the Foundation at least one (1) week's notice before going on maternity leave and informed the Foundation as soon as practicable of her delivery.

Where the qualifying notice is not given without good reason, the employee may be entitled to only half the payment during her maternity leave. For a Singapore-citizen child, the Government reimburses the cost of the final eight (8) weeks of leave, subject to the prevailing statutory cap.

2.9 Paternity Leave

A working father is entitled to four (4) weeks of Government-Paid Paternity Leave (GPPL), in line with the enhanced statutory entitlement, provided that:

- a) the child is a Singapore citizen;
- b) he is, or has been, lawfully married to the child's mother between conception and birth; and
- c) he has served the Foundation for a continuous period of at least three (3) months before the birth of the child.

Adoptive fathers who meet the equivalent requirements are also eligible. Paternity leave may be taken as follows:

Arrangement	How leave may be taken
Default (no mutual agreement)	Take 1–4 continuous weeks within 16 weeks after the birth of the child.
Flexible (by mutual agreement)	Take the leave within 12 months after the birth, either in continuous blocks or split into individual

2.10 Childcare Leave (Enhanced)

An employee whose youngest child is under the age of seven (7) years is entitled to six (6) days of paid childcare leave over a 12-month period, provided the child is a Singapore citizen and the employee has served at least three (3) months. Staff must submit a copy of the child's birth certificate to HR and give advance notice. The following terms apply:

- Unconsumed childcare leave cannot be carried over to the next year.
- Unconsumed childcare leave is forfeited upon leaving employment.
- Childcare leave cannot be used to offset the notice period on resignation.
- Early notice of the intention to take childcare leave should be given to the Foundation.

2.10.1 Extended Childcare Leave

Where the youngest child is between seven (7) and twelve (12) years of age and is a Singapore citizen, the employee is entitled to two (2) days of extended childcare leave over a 12-month period.

2.10.2 Childcare Leave (Non-Citizen Child)

Where the youngest child is not a Singapore citizen but is residing in Singapore, the employee is entitled to two (2) days of childcare leave per year.

2.11 Shared Parental Leave

A working father may share up to four (4) weeks of his spouse's maternity leave, subject to the agreement of the spouse and the prevailing statutory scheme. He is eligible if the child is a Singapore citizen, the child's mother qualifies for maternity leave, and he is lawfully married to the child's mother. The allocation must be recorded on the relevant Government portal, and the printout submitted to HR with the approval of the Chief Executive Officer.

2.12 Compassionate Leave

An employee may be granted three (3) days of paid compassionate leave on the demise of an immediate family member (parents and parents-in-law, spouse, siblings, children, and grandparents), and one (1) day for the demise of an extended relation (brother- or sister-in-law, aunt, or uncle). Such leave may commence on the day of death or the day after. Staff must submit a copy of the death certificate to HR for approval.

2.13 Public Holidays

Public holidays follow the prevailing declaration by the Singapore Government. The eleven (11) gazetted public holidays are:

1	New Year's Day
2	Chinese New Year (first day)
3	Chinese New Year (second day)
4	Hari Raya Puasa
5	Hari Raya Haji
6	Good Friday
7	Labour Day
8	Vesak Day
9	National Day
10	Deepavali
11	Christmas Day

If a public holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the Foundation may either grant the employee another day off, or add one (1) day in lieu to the employee's annual leave entitlement for that calendar year. The eve of a public holiday is a normal working day, although the Foundation may at its discretion release staff earlier.

2.14 National Service (In-Camp Training)

A male employee who is a Singapore citizen or permanent resident shall be granted leave to fulfil his national service obligations. He will be paid his salary less any make-up pay reimbursed by the Government for the service period. The employee must notify HR of the training dates and submit the NS notice once received, to facilitate the Foundation's claim for NS make-up pay.

2.15 Off-in-Lieu (OIL)

Employees who work on weekends and public holidays may be compensated with Off-in-Lieu (OIL), which must be consumed within the same calendar year and cannot be carried forward. Approval must be obtained from the Chief Executive Officer, with the HR and Finance Executive copied, by email indicating the name of the event, the date, and the hours worked. Guidelines:

- There is no encashment of OIL. OIL is valid only for work performed during MAF-organised or MAF-supported events and competitions.
- OIL is granted based on the number of hours worked on weekends and public holidays: for four (4) hours or less, time off in lieu of four (4) hours on a working day is granted; for more than four (4) hours, a full day off on a working day is granted.

- c) OIL is capped at twelve (12) hours of claim per weekend day.

3. Employee Benefits

3.1 Medical & Dental Benefits

Employees are eligible for medical and dental benefits after completing at least three (3) months of service with the Foundation.

- The medical subsidy is subject to a maximum of S$500 per calendar year per employee.
- The dental subsidy is subject to a maximum of S$250 per calendar year per employee.
- Any unused balance cannot be carried forward to the following year.
- The Foundation maintains a Group Hospitalisation & Surgical (GHS) and Group Personal Accident insurance scheme covering all confirmed employees.

3.1.1 Sick Leave & Hospitalisation Leave

A confirmed employee is granted paid sick leave of up to fourteen (14) days per calendar year for outpatient (non-hospitalisation) cases, or up to sixty (60) days per calendar year where hospitalisation is necessary (the 60 days being inclusive of the 14 outpatient days). The employee must inform their immediate supervisor within two (2) hours of the start of the working day, and submit a valid medical certificate to HR as soon as possible; otherwise the absence will be treated as unpaid leave with a corresponding salary deduction.

3.2 Transport & Meal Benefits

Staff are eligible for transport reimbursement where:

- a) they are required to report for work before or after normal working hours for work-related duties; and
- b) the reimbursement is limited to a return trip from home to the deployed venue, on production of valid receipts.

A meal allowance of S$10 per meal is reimbursable where an employee is required to work more than four (4) continuous hours beyond normal working hours at a deployed event, subject to the prior approval of the supervisor.

3.3 Training & Professional Development

The Foundation supports the professional development of its employees. Confirmed employees may apply for sponsorship of job-relevant courses, certifications, and conferences, subject to budget availability and the approval of the Chief Executive Officer. Sponsored employees may be required to sign a training bond proportionate to the cost and duration of the sponsored programme.

3.4 Flexible Work Arrangements

Subject to the written approval of the Chief Executive Officer, and in accordance with the Tripartite Guidelines on Flexible Work Arrangement Requests, the Foundation may agree with an employee on a Flexible Work Arrangement (such as hybrid working or staggered hours). The Foundation is not obliged to agree to any proposed arrangement where, in its reasonable judgement, the arrangement is not compatible with operational requirements. Any arrangement granted may be reviewed and varied with reasonable notice.

4. Remuneration, Annual Wage Supplement & Bonuses

The Annual Wage Supplement (AWS, or “13th-month” payment) and any performance bonus are granted based on good work performance and are paid at the discretion of the Board. They are guided by the recommendations of the National Wages Council and are subject to the prevailing economic situation and the financial health of the Foundation. To be eligible for the full AWS, an employee must have served the full calendar year; otherwise, the AWS is pro-rated. Salaries are paid monthly, on or before the last working day of each month, by direct credit to the employee's designated bank account, with the appropriate CPF contributions made in accordance with the law.

5. Performance Appraisal

5.1 Evaluator

The primary evaluator of an employee shall be their reporting supervisor, who has had at least three (3) months of direct supervision of the employee. For the Foundation's Secretariat staff, the Chief Executive Officer is the primary evaluator.

5.2 Performance Appraisal or Review

- a) The performance of confirmed employees is appraised on a six-monthly basis, with a mid-year review and a year-end review.
- b) For Coaches, Managers, and above, the Chief Executive Officer conducts the appraisal in the presence of the President, Honorary Secretary, or relevant Board member.
- c) The Chief Executive Officer consults and seeks feedback from the relevant Standing Committee Chairman, as set out below.

Department	Board Committee Consulted
Finance & Administration	Chairman, Finance & Administration Standing Committee
High Performance / Coaching	Chairman, High Performance Standing Committee
Events & Competitions	Chairman, Technical Standing Committee

5.3 Promotion & Demotion

- a) The Foundation may promote an employee to a higher grade based on their performance and the needs of the organisation.
- b) When filling a vacancy at a higher level, priority is given to suitable existing employees.
- c) On each promotion, the employee serves a probationary period of three (3) to six (6) months in the new position. If the employee does not pass this probation, they may be reverted to their original position, and their salary adjusted accordingly.

6. Activities In & Outside the Organisation

- a) While employed by the Foundation, an employee may not be involved or engaged (directly or indirectly) in any other commercial activity—especially any activity related to the Foundation's sport—without the prior written consent of the Foundation.
- b) Even where permission is granted, the outside activity must not adversely affect the employee's duties or performance during office hours or otherwise.

7. Workplace Harassment & Grievance Handling

7.1 Zero-Tolerance Policy

The Foundation is committed to providing a safe and respectful workplace. Harassment, bullying, discrimination, and victimisation of any kind—whether physical, verbal, written, or online—will not be tolerated and may constitute grounds for disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

7.2 Reporting a Grievance

An employee who experiences or witnesses harassment, or who has a workplace grievance, should raise it through the following channels:

1. Raise the matter informally with the immediate supervisor, where appropriate.
2. If unresolved, or if the supervisor is the subject of the complaint, submit a written complaint to the Manager, Human Resources & Administration.
3. Serious matters are escalated to the Chief Executive Officer, who will commence an investigation. Where the complaint concerns the Chief Executive Officer, it is referred directly to the Chairman of the Board.

All complaints are treated in strict confidence so far as is reasonably practicable. The Foundation prohibits any retaliation against an employee who makes a complaint in good faith.

8. Information Technology & Data Protection

8.1 Acceptable Use

The Foundation's IT systems, devices, email, and internet access are provided primarily for business use. Employees must not use these resources to access, store, or distribute unlawful, offensive, or infringing material, and must take reasonable care to protect their login credentials and devices against unauthorised access.

8.2 Personal Data Protection

The Foundation collects, uses, and discloses personal data in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (PDPA). Employees who handle the personal data of members, athletes, donors, or fellow staff must do so only for legitimate business purposes, must keep such data secure, and must report any suspected data breach to the Data Protection Officer (DPO) within twenty-four (24) hours of becoming aware of it.

9. Resignation, Retirement & Termination

9.1 Resignation & Notice Periods

Unless otherwise stated in the Letter of Appointment, an employee who intends to resign must give notice in writing, or pay salary in lieu of the notice period. The applicable notice periods are:

Grade	Notice Period
Executive and below	One (1) month
Senior Executive	One (1) month
Coach	Two (2) months
Manager and above	Two (2) months

During probation (any grade)	One (1) week
------------------------------	--------------

Annual leave may be offset against the notice period only with the written agreement of the Chief Executive Officer. The employee must complete the clearance and handover process and return all Foundation property before their last day of service.

9.2 Retirement

The retirement age and re-employment age follow the prevailing Singapore laws (the Retirement and Re-employment Act). Eligible employees who reach the statutory retirement age may be offered re-employment, subject to medical fitness and satisfactory performance.

9.3 Termination by the Foundation

A contract of service may be terminated by the Foundation by giving the same notice period set out in Section 9.1, or payment of salary in lieu. The Foundation may terminate employment immediately, without notice or payment in lieu, where the employee:

1. materially breaches any term of their contract, this Human Resource Policy, or any of the Foundation's policies, procedures, circulars, or lawful directives;
2. wilfully disobeys a lawful and reasonable order given by the Foundation;
3. conducts themselves in a manner inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of their duties;
4. is guilty of fraud or dishonesty;
5. is habitually neglectful of their duties; or
6. ceases to be permitted to work in Singapore.

Where notice of termination has been given by either party, the Foundation may place the employee on garden leave—requiring them to remain away from the workplace, perform no duties or different duties, return all Foundation property, and refrain from contacting members, suppliers, or employees—until the employment ends. During this period the employee remains employed by the Foundation and may not work for any other person.

10. Performance Management

10.1 Recognition

Recognition may be provided to an employee through:

- a) Promotion—only where there is a vacancy and the employee possesses the required skills, competencies, potential, and knowledge for the position; and
- b) Merit increment—based on good work performance, the financial situation of the Foundation, and the discretion of the Board.

10.2 Discipline

It is within the Foundation's sole discretion to select the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken. For any allegation made against a member of staff, the Chief Executive Officer shall commence an investigation promptly. Offences for which an employee may be subject to discipline, up to and including dismissal, include:

- a) dishonesty, including falsification of the Foundation's records or documents, misrepresentation of facts, or the misappropriation of or intentional damage to property belonging to the Foundation;
- b) disorderly conduct or behaviour;
- c) failure to comply with the Foundation's policies and procedures or to maintain confidentiality; and
- d) habitual lateness, unauthorised absence, or insubordination.

For a first or minor offence, an employee may receive a verbal warning followed by a written warning. Where an offence is serious, the employee may be dismissed immediately and will be notified of the action taken, in writing. An employee subject to disciplinary action has the right to respond to the allegations before a final decision is made.

11. Employee Acknowledgement

By signing below, the employee acknowledges that they have received, read, and understood the Meridian Athletic Foundation Human Resource Policy, and agrees to comply with its terms as may be amended from time to time.
